

LONDON

ST. PETERSBURG SNOW MOTIFS

The northern capital of Russia is not only famous for its drawbridges, embankments and gardens but also for the beautiful railings surrounding them. The snow-covered ornamental metal railings of Mikhailovsky Garden were the inspiration for this rug pattern. Through the softness of the lines, designer Agapova Anna conveys the peaceful feeling of the wintery park and its mesmerising tranquillity.

MATERIALS:

Background: Wool

Pattern: Silk

Available in polyamide fibre*.

- * Polyamide is a synthetic fibre with excellent performance characteristics; polyamide fibre has a luxurious look and soft feel. Lowest price. Request additionally.

SIZES

Available in custom colours & sizes

LEAD TIME

16 weeks